

Open Bids, but Halt Squad Car Action

May Ask Support For Police Dept. Benefit

Arlington Heights police department needs a new police car if it is to maintain its present efficiency. The department, through its earnings turned over to the village treasury, has earned a new car several times over again, but the demands on the general fund of the city have been so great that the exchequer is low. The aldermen recognize the right of the department to new motor equipment, but hesitates to pledge for that purpose funds not in existence.

A happy thought!

A Police Department benefit.

Between now and next Monday night the aldermen will make up their minds as to whether to Buy one high powered car.

Buy one big car and one small one.

Buy two small ones.

Go in debt for the car or cars, or let "George" do it.

In the latter case, "George" would be the general public, which would be asked to cooperate by purchasing dance tickets. This method was utilized at Des Plaines to secure $4,000 to install a radio broadcasting system.

The aldermen individually, will be pleased to learn the sentiment of the public. Will the public be willing to buy tickets at a dollar a throw for the police cause?

The aldermen have an open mind in the matter and would like to know what you think.

They do not want the charge, "racket" placed against the plan.

Phone, write or tell the alderman what you think about it.

Five bids for a new police car were opened Monday night, the net figures for which with old car traded in were as follows:

President Studebaker	$820
Mercury	638
Ford V-8	409
Graham, with extras	670
DeSoto	620
Buick 61	820
Buick 41	600

The water department, which has a comfortable cash balance, recently purchased a second hand Ford for service work and now learn that it is not so easy to get the special sized tires that are needed. Supt. Luehring was directed to visit second hand shops to locate tires needed.

A rearrangement of hours for the desk sergeants will relieve John Firnbach from such duty and allow him to operate power mower in a local war against thistles and weeds. The other two men will work in twelve hour shifts while the weed war is being waged.

There have been so many new buildings which mean so many more water meters, the board authorized the purchase of 25 regular sized meters and a larger meter for the new Duntman plant.

Alderman Studdman reported that the Creamery Package Co., through its local superintendent, Mr. McKee, has advised him that several changes in the method of handling acid at the plant were about to be installed. They asked a conference with the office of the village engineer.

Harry I. Barton, who sold the city the service pump previously erected on truck, advised the board that he stood ready to guarantee the proper operation of the pump if it was placed on the recently purchased new truck, but would present prices for a gasoline operated pump if the board desired. He was advised to do so.

Sanitary Engineers Guests and Admirers of Local Plant

George Harris Elected President of Northern Illinois District

Arlington Heights has one of the finest sewage treatment plants in northern Illinois and is also one of the finest towns. Such was the unanimous verdict of 74 operators of sewage treatment plants in this part of the state, who held their annual convention here last Thursday.

The visitors, who are members of the permanent organization, showed their appreciation for their entertainment and recognition of the engineering ability of George Harris, operator of Arlington's plant, by electing him president of the association.

Arlington Heights was recommended as the convention place by C. E. Schwob, of the state health department who is thoroughly familiar with the work that is being done by Mr. Harris and the plant that is part of Arlington's million dollar sewer system.

Mr. Schwob and Mr. Harris arranged details of the convention which got off to a flying start in the morning when the visitors had the opportunity to inspect the plant and ply Mr. Harris with inquiries about its operation. Arlington's plant has a lot of things not found in many other places, due to pumping works required and other special equipment. The laboratory might have been partly "Greek" to some of the visitors, but it was one of the things that completes a modern plant with a

July 4 Looms As Biggest Day Ever Held In Arlington

Trade and Civic Men Plan Many Activities For Holiday Celebration

A day packed with parades, ball games, boxing, tennis and swimming exhibitions and matches, field events for children, games and concessions, dancing and fireworks, is the holiday menu written by the Arlington Heights Trade and Civic association for July Fourth.

Hundreds of people from neighboring towns as well as from Arlington Heights, are expected to attend what will amount to the biggest celebration ever held in this village.

The demolition of the freight house and construction of a new one depends on making a successful and happy day and the business men are cutting no expenses to bring a mammoth show to the community. With the exception of the longest parade ever wound through Arlington Heights, all events will be held at ten o'clock in the morning to dancing and fireworks late in the evening.

Whether you call it a picnic, festival, carnival or anything else, the theme of the celebration will not only be "Be Patriotic" for the United States of America, but "Be Patriotic" for Arlington Heights, which is about to take a big step in rubbing out a public spectacle in an aged freight building.

Although the final order of events has not been announced, the general committee of the association met Tuesday evening and heard committee reports and suggestions. Tentative schedule has been arranged as follows:

A "Baby Parade" A parade through the town that will include public officials of Arlington Heights, the police and fire departments, the Legion and V. F. W. posts and auxiliaries, the junior drum and bugle corps, the high school band, the school children, and several other drum and bugle corps of other communities.

Mr. C. L. Griffith, chairman of the parade committee, will arrange a "baby parade" and a bicycle parade, an opportunity for parents and school children to decorate their baby carriages and bicycles for prizes, is under consideration.

Tennis tournaments will be held from 1 to 3 o'clock. School children will engage in racing and competitive events during these hours, also. The Arlington Redwings plan to meet a good team from the Great Lakes in the late afternoon. Boxing bouts which will probably match local boxers who recently competed in the C. Y. O. has also been planned.

Swimming and diving exhibition and competition will be held from 7 o'clock to 9:30 under the supervision of George Green, the new swim instructor of the pool. George Schmeberger is chairman of the athletic events for the day.

W. F. Karstens and his committee will handle the evening entertainment and fireworks. The display has already been contracted for which presages to be one of the most colorful aerial shows on record. Dancing will be provided by Earl Friedrichs and his ten piece orchestra.

The grounds and concessions committee, Theodor Studdman, chairman, will supply a corn game and other popular games as well as plenty of refreshments along Douglas st. on the east side of the park.

Decorations of the business district during the holidays is planned by the committee and Arlington Heights will look the part as well as take the part of being the best spot in the suburbs for an memorable occasion.

Henry F. Muller is general chairman of the celebration. He and Nicholas M. Latoff, executive secretary, have the responsibility of coordinating the various activities and every minute of the day. W. Krause, Jr., is chairman of the finance committee. It was the general feeling of the general committee to purchase all necessary articles from local merchants whenever possible.

Reasonable admission fees to events will be charged.

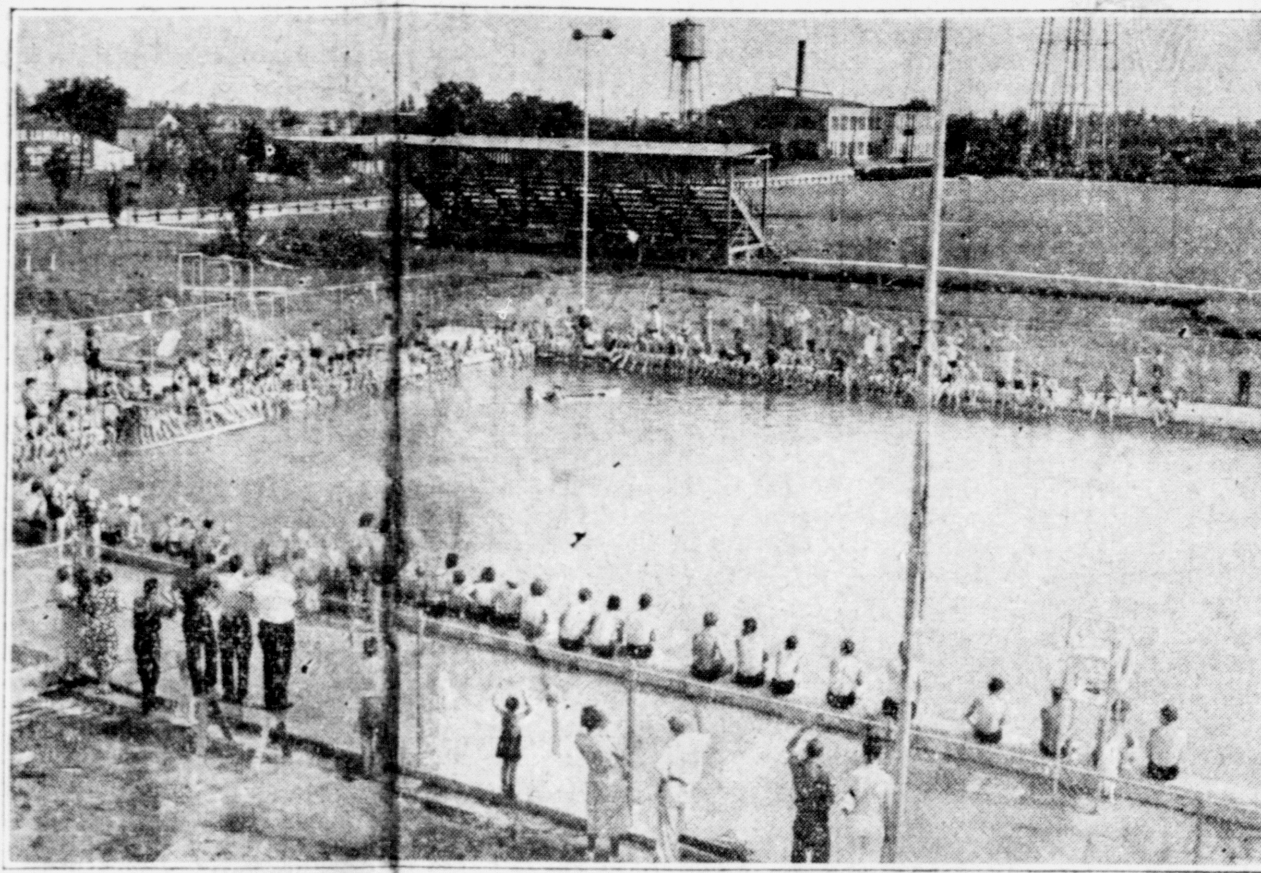

A Swede Gets the Fish, Three Dutchmen Look On

It was at Mason Lake, Sunday, that Glen Benson landed a 34½ inch muskie weighing 12 pounds. Glen had reason to be rather proud of his catch, but did not realize what a big fisherman he was until he saw the envious looks that his companions, three Dutchmen called "Dutchmen" were Richard Jahn, Frank Jahn and Louis Roesner. Glen is a good natured Swede and when his friends read this story it will be lucky for him that they are also good natured.

'COME ON IN—THE WATER'S FINE'

A busy day at the Arlington pool, one day last summer. 1939 Season opens Saturday.

Down She Comes -the Freight House

Where are you people who said it would never occur—the demolition of the freight house?

Did you see the group of men in the west park Tuesday morning setting the stakes for the new building that is to be the gift of Arlington Heights to the Northwestern railroad.

The village is providing some of the men who are digging the footings, which George Schmeberger hopes to have completed by Saturday.

Volunteer workmen will pour the foundation concrete on Saturday, if the time schedule is maintained. The following week-end they will be finished. A week later a gang of masons expect to be able to erect the entire walls. Carpenters will then do their part and Presto Change—the building will be done, almost before you can say "Jack Robinson."

Mr. Schmeberger and the Civic and Trade association will welcome the cooperation of labor, materials, and this is a community venture and worthy of the support of everyone.

In the meantime outright checks towards the depot fund can be mailed to Walter Krause, treasurer.

Tuesday Was Pay Day For Local Bodies

Tax Collectors Receive Authority To "Pay Up" Local Governments

Local tax collectors have been waiting a long time for their disbursement sheet, which gives them authority to divide their tax collections among the various taxing bodies to which they belong. They completed their work in April, but the county treasurer did not give them authority to "pay up" until this week. In the meantime the local taxing bodies have been anxiously waiting for their money.

Arlington Heights high school received from the three collectors of Wheeling, Elk Grove and Palatine nearly $20,000. School taxes paid to Wm. Annen, Wheeling collector amounted to over $50,000, including $3,600 non-high school tax. Tax payers of District 25, Arlington Heights, paid nearly $23,000 to the local tax collector, which is nearly $2,000 more than the amount received by the high school from Wheeling taxpayers.

The cost of relief in Wheeling is a big item. The check of Mr. Annen for that purpose, delivered to local relief administrator was nearly $6,000. This paper has repeatedly told tax payers that the greater part of their tax money remains at home when paid to local collector. Mr. Annen only remitted about $14,000 to county governments.

A. F. Kraemer, collector in Elk Grove, says his collections exceeded by ten per cent tax collections of a year ago, that increase coming from property within the incorporated areas. The total tax assessed against Elk Grove tax payers for 1938, was $8,000 less than last year. Part of this was due to the elimination of any relief tax. The school tax in Elk Grove totaled $8,500 for local schools. The non-high school tax was $3,500. Arlington Heights high school received $7,500 from Elk Grove.

With a June 1 penalty date on the first installment, there was an entire month when taxes could be paid in the county building, which monies will probably materially increase the amount of tax money received this month by the local taxing bodies.

The duties of a tax collector have increased in importance and service that the collector gives to the property owners is along broader lines until the job has become a real one that calls for experience and business judgment.

The high school band will give an outdoor concert at the field house next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Arlington Park Dolls Up For Big Meeting

Arlington Park is all dolled up and ready to go, for the big 30 day race meet which opens on Monday, June 26.

The huge plant has been painted, scrubbed, polished and carried until it shines like a new toy.

A new roof has been put on the stands and the stables, the entire plant has had a thorough painting, the grounds have been raked and cared for the rose hedge along the home stretch is in full bloom, the trees and shrubs in the paddock and about the plant have grown wonderfully and the whole place presents the picture of a beautiful park.

Arlington Park has long had the reputation of being one of the most beautiful race courses in the country and with the painting and cleaning it has had this spring and with the growth which the trees and shrubs have made, it is right now more beautiful than ever before.

The management is reported to have spent around $140,000 in its improvement campaign this year, and the looks of the park at present warrants such an expenditure.

Many changes have been made in the personnel of the track's official family which will conduct this year's race meeting.

Robert S. Shelley will serve as racing secretary. Mr. Shelley is a prominent young Kentucky racing official and knows the ins and outs of the difficult position of secretary and track handicapper.

Roy Dickerson will again be the starter. Dickerson has long been at Arlington Park and is rated one of the best starters in the game.

Christopher J. Fitzgerald will again be the steward representing the Illinois racing commission and will have in the stand with him Otto W. Lehmann and Major L. A. Beard.

Placing judges will be C. J. Fitzgerald, Jr., Thomas Steele and W. K. Dahlstrom.

William Cunningham will be the official timer. Frank Hackett and Thomas H. Steele will serve as paddock judges, while the patrol judges will be Frank Hackett, Emmett Hileman and Morris Royden.

With the official family all selected and the beautiful park in apple pie order, all that is left to be ready for the opening is the horses themselves and they are already beginning to arrive on the grounds and by the time the bugle calls them to the post for the first race, it is expected that the many barns will be filled with the finest race horses in America.

Arlington Park is announcing an innovation for opening day. It will be ladies' day, with all the fair sex being given the opportunity to use the races and the beautiful setting for the price of the tax only.

The officials of Arlington Park are enthusiastic over their improved racing plant and invite the public to get a preview of the whole place during the week before the meeting opens.

Otto W. Lehmann is president of the Jockey Club, John Hertz, chairman of the executive board; Leonard S. Florsheim, treasurer and Charles A. McCulloch, chairman of the board of directors.

The many improvements which have been made this year have been under the direct supervision of Fred A. Raabe, assistant general manager, who has been on the grounds for many weeks and who, besides directing the multiple activities at the park, has found time with track superintendent Lamb, to invent and make a combination track harrow and sprinkler which will prevent any more dust clouds blowing into the stands.

So the big Arlington Park race track is ready for the opening. With one of the most beautiful parks in the country, the fastest track and the finest of accommodations everything is ready for the big opening on Monday, June 26. All that is needed, is the ring of the bell, the wild shout "they're off" and another great season will be on at Arlington Park.

Swimming Pool To Open Saturday

City Council Threatened, But Will Stand Pat

Threats of mandamus proceedings do not scare the members of the Arlington Heights city council which recently directed Paul Taege, building superintendent, to refuse the application of Elmer Messinger for permission to erect a service station on the Watson property on Northwest highway, near Euclid. Messinger admits that it is his plan to sell gas "for less" twenty-four hours of the day.

Commissioner Taege received a formal notice by special delivery Monday demanding that the permit be issued at once. He had also received information that if the permit was not issued by ten o'clock Tuesday morning, mandamus proceedings would be started.

Members of the city council were told Monday evening that action would probably be against them as individuals. At the suggestion that if the board desired to rescind its previous action in refusal of the permit there was still time to stop any mandamus proceedings, the members just smiled and did not say a word, which means that they will stand pat.

On previous action, Present gas station operators, of which there are fourteen, oppose the permit which might mean a local gas price war in Arlington Heights twelve months of the year.

Park Board Awaits Sale of Season Tickets To Determine Hours

BULLETIN — The pool will open at ten o'clock Saturday, two o'clock Sunday, which hours will be observed until a definite discussion is made based on the number of season tickets that are sold by June 30.

Arlington Heights people must still take their baths at home, but they can cool off seven days a week at the Arlington Heights swimming pool which will have its official opening Saturday. The pool is opening for the first full season. Swimming was delayed last summer until August.

The park board is in a quandry. They do not know if the patronage will warrant the pool's operation from ten o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, or if the receipts will only warrant one eight hour shift, from two o'clock in the afternoon to ten at night.

The advance sale of season tickets at a special rate has not been as large as was expected and if the park board accepts the present ticket sale as a criterion of the interest that will be shown when hot weather arrives, that pool will only be open a minimum number of hours each day, thereby requiring only one shift of employees.

Full time operation from morning to night will require a double shift and nearly double the salary list, which with the overhead expense, including insurance, etc., reaches nearly $100 a day.

As this paper goes to press, the park board is considering the situation. In the meantime, if the swimmers of Arlington Heights and the parents of the boys and girls who will be asking for swim money every warm day, desire to insure full time operation they should purchase the season tickets at once. They can be secured of any park board member or of Glen Benson, treasurer, at Arlington Seating Co. Tickets will also be on sale by the cashier at the pool.

Single swimming charges, payable every time swimmer enters the swimming section are: Children, 10 cents, Junior, 20 cents, adults, 25 cents.

Season tickets are: Before July 1 — Child (6-13 years), $1.50; Youth (13-19 years), $2.50; Adult (over 19), $3.50; Man and Wife (sold together), $5.00.

After July 1—Child (6-13 years), $2.00; Youth (13-19 years), $3.00; Adult (over 19), $4.00; Man and Wife (sold together), $6.00.

The season ticket is not transferable, but it enables parents to pay at one time, at a minimum cost, for an entire season, no matter how often the swimmer enters the pool.

George Green, swim instructor at the pool has announced the following rates for instruction:

10 lessons in groups of 10 pupils, $5 each.

10 lessons by individuals, $7.50 each.

Single lessons, $1 each.

Senior Awards And Diplomas To Class of 125

Record Attendance Marks Third Annual Flower Show

From the standpoint of interest and attendance, the flower show sponsored by the Arlington Heights Garden club last Saturday and Sunday was the most successful.

With an attendance numbering over 600, the new field house offered ideal facilities for displaying the exhibits, the lighting effects bringing out the beauty of every flower.

Due to the extreme warm weather during the early part of the month, a great many varieties of iris, peonies, poppies, etc., had passed the blooming season, but a number of late varieties were exhibited.

Many changes have been made in the personnel of the track's official family which will conduct this year's race meeting.

Robert S. Shelley will serve as racing secretary. Mr. Shelley is a prominent young Kentucky racing official and knows the ins and outs of the difficult position of secretary and track handicapper.

17-year locust on display created interest. Through the courtesy of Arthur L. McElhose, plates of butterflies, moths, and insects.

Another exhibit worthy of much praise and commendation was the formal garden and walk arranged by Hugo Thal and Nathan A. Carlson. The walk, composed of flat stones, was lined on each side by rows of flowering geraniums, back of which were banded rare plants, rubber plants, tropical ferns, etc., representing a perennial border.

At the rear end of the path stood a white trellis over which twined hibited that were worthy of special showing. Among the exhibits were a great many rare and odd plants seldom seen at an amateur show. Roses were more in abundance this year, many of them being of choice and delicate varieties.

The forest preserve display, supervised by G. Rex Volz and Theodore Miltzer, was the best of its kind ever displayed at a suburban show. With a towering oak which had long since succumbed to the ravages of time, overshadowing a rivulet that trickled down a stony waterfall into a pool surrounded by native shrubs, ferns, lilies and spring flowers, a snarling raccoon a beautiful American Beauty rose in full bloom. This display was beautiful in its simplicity and satisfying to all its admirers.

Charles Klehm's collection of peonies added much to the beauty of the show, his basket of the pink variety named Martha Bullock being the largest and most beautiful variety in this commercial exhibit. Mr. Klehm's peonies cannot be excelled.

The miniature green house arranged and displayed by the pupils of the first grade from the north side school was deserving of praise. The interest shown by the children leads us to believe that the future crouched half hidden waiting for something to appear from the depths of the pool.

Near by on the roof of a rotted stump sat a frisky looking squirrel eating an acorn, while from the highest point of vantage stood a handsome cock pheasant in all his beauty and majesty. The exhibit was complete in every detail and contained practically every feature to be found in the forests.

The Club is grateful to the Green Mill Gardens and Irving Boettcher for their donations of potted plants and flowers which were offered for sale.

The general committee in charge of arrangements wishes to thank every contributor, exhibitor and worker who had a part in making the show a great success. The club hopes their efforts will interest others to join. The meetings are open to all.

Threading the darkness from leaf to leaf,
It slips thru the palings slick and wet
Pointed and sharp like a silhouette;
Something rustles where grass is tall
And a sly hand stirs the leaf on the wall,
Then soft and sure on the very roof
Something hurries with stealthy hoof;
It slips to the gutter and slides
down the spout,
This thieving thing that we can't keep out.
The bird bath has become a thing of beauty, as native to the garden as the it sprang from the seed of fountains; the border has accepted it and grown close about it, embracing it with the tall stalks of iris in bloom and visiting it with leaf shadows from the overhanging trees. Now, freshly filled, in the very early morning, it is a bowl of green and gold liquid; a breeze ruffles it and the water ripples and dips into a miniature lake; leaf shadow pleasure craft skim over it, dipping and rocking, hurried by the breeze until they float clean over the edge and melt in amber sunlight; then all begins over again and the leaf boats skim the surface while in the bottom, sinuous shapes twist and turn like happy deep sea creatures; the breeze passes and the iris leans over the pool's edge, bemused at its own reflection, and the becalmed boats lie in a lake of orchid lights; lightly the iris sways and bends nearer and nearer to the water, drowning at last in its mirrored loveliness.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR IT?

By C. W. Lussman
of Sieburg Pharmacy
When you have a pain here or there what do you do about it?
First, you should be glad you have it, for it's nature's way of "tipping you off" there's mischief in your "innards." Second, you should set about ascertaining the cause.
Usually your own or some friend's conception of the cause influences you to partake of some magic medicine, you or he heard of, for pains seemingly similar.
Perhaps you get along quite favorably for a time, then you and he have to guess again.
Why?
Because nothing has been done that has reached the source of the trouble.
The safe and economical thing to do in such cases—in fact always at the first sign of illness—is to get in touch with a physician. It is his vocation to determine causes and to prescribe the necessary corrective measures.
Then his prescriptions should be expertly compounded in order to produce the desired results.

Infant Clinic is Next Tuesday

Infant Welfare Clinic will be held in the health center Tuesday, June 20, from 1 to 3 p. m. Immediately following this clinic there will be a clinic for children between the ages of two and five years. There will be a doctor and a dentist who will give a thorough physical examination to any child of these ages. Because complete history will be taken of any previous illnesses of the child, it is requested that the mother or someone who will be able to give accurate information will accompany him.

The importance of this clinic can not be stressed too much. Many slight physical disabilities uncovered at these clinics are easily corrected at this time where if they are let go until school years they may cause a backward or physical unfit child.

All parents of children whose ages range from two to five years are urged to bring them for this thorough examination. This clinic is conducted without charge to the patients but any abnormalities which are found, are to be treated by the family physician of the patient.

Music Classes Start Monday at North School

Summer instrumental music classes sponsored by the Board of Education of District 25, will begin on Monday morning, June 19, at 9:30, and will continue until August 15.

Classes will be offered for all children interested in either beginning or advanced instrumental work. Groups will meet on the stage of the auditorium in the North school. All pupils of string instruments will be given private instruction. Students in the other instruments will meet either individually or in small classes.

The first week's schedule is as follows:

Brass instrument pupils on Tuesday.

String instrument pupils on Wednesday.

Reed instrument pupils on Thursday.

The charge for this instruction will be $2 per month, payable in advance, which includes one lesson and one rehearsal per week for advanced students and two lessons per week for beginning students. At the present time the enrollment of this work is approximately thirty students. Since the maximum number that can be handled will not be very much greater than this it is hoped that anyone interested in joining the classes will arrange to do so promptly.

30,000 Peony Blooms Ready For Cold Storage

These 30,000 peony blooms will soon be put into cold storage at the Klehm's Nurseries, Algonquin road, east of State road. Klehm's peony beds are the biggest in the midwest covering 35 acres. The buds, rather than the blooms, are picked and put in cold storage for as long as three months in a room chilled by pipes carrying ice cold water. As much as five tons of ice daily is required to keep the store-room cool. Many of the flowers are shipped as far as New York. Storage possibilities of peonies were discovered by Carl Klehm, Sr., some 25 years ago and his large scale production has gained national prominence.

A Busy Summer For Teachers Of Arlington

Many Will Go To School
Two Will Attend At Mexico City

Vacation times does not mean all play time for the thirty-five or more instructors in the Arlington Heights high school and elementary institutions. Many of them are planning to enroll for summer courses in colleges and universities; others are looking forward to vacation trips. Many of the men are hoping to secure employment at the race track before spending August in pleasure jaunts. The Herald could not learn about all of them, but here is what some of them expect to do.

Two who are looking forward to combining pleasure with business are Misses Donna Marie Volz and Edith L. Lindsey who will attend the University of Mexico at Mexico City, Mexico. Incidentally this university is the oldest one in the two Americas, having been established some time in the 16th century.

Summer school will draw among high school teachers, Raymond Hayes, and Marion Hogate to Northwestern university, Miss Helen Meier to the University of Chicago, and Wm. A. Rossiter to the University of Illinois. Donald Costain will attend school during August.

Coach John L. Grose will take a vacation for the first time, after attending summer school for three years, in and around Arlington Heights. Celebration of Irma Judith's first birthday is one of the biggest plans he is making right now.

Active members of the "teachers' hook and line" club this summer will probably be Mr. Grose, Mr. Hogate, and a few others who are wary of announcing their intention to fish until they have proved themselves able to reel in a big one.

Among the teachers who hope to be included on the payroll of the Arlington Park race track are Messrs. Costain, Hayes, Myers, Thornton, and Grose.

Several of the teachers are taking advantage of the summer months to see part of the country. Darrell Diggins will travel through Colorado and the west. LeRoy Long is planning a motor trip to the west coast. He will return as far as Colorado by July 2 and remain there as boy's counselor on a ranch. Previous to that he will visit his parents at Blue Mound, Ill. Miss Doris Minot will take an automobile trip through the west.

The western states will also attract Stanley Myers after the racing season, particularly the states of California, Texas, and Oregon. Donald Thompson will remain in Arlington Heights for a few weeks before taking leave for southern Illinois, Iowa, and possibly farther west. E. B. Thornton will attend the nation's guard camp in August. Miss Dorothy Bristow is leaving for her home at Webster Grove, Missouri.

Majority of teachers in the Arlington elementary schools are taking up summer school work at various colleges and universities. W. Vanderbeck will attend North-western, Dorothy C. Solt and Doris Clark, National College of Education, Evanston, Mary Buhl, Peabody college, Nashville, Tennessee; Lavina Jansen, Northern Illinois State Teachers College, DeKalb; Mildred Russell, Charleston, Mar- tha Sapp, Boulder, Colorado, and Laura Grothe, Eastern Illinois State Teachers college.

Melvin Anderson has the unusual opportunity of travel and study in Europe during the summer. Irene Laughlin will return to her home at Wyconda, Missouri. The comfortable, cool north woods will attract Beatrice Paszotta and Laura Grothe, while Margaret Clark will divide her time between Tulsa, Oklahoma, and northern Michigan. Other travelers will be Irene Jossell, Argola Walk, and Elsa Bearse. Miss Bearse recently received her degree from the Pestalozzi Froebel teachers college. Margaret Thompson says Arlington Heights is good enough for her and will remain in this vicinity during the summer months.

Meeske's Give Heidorns First Defeat, 5-3

Meeske's dealt Heidorn's their first defeat by a 5 to 3 score. Meeske scored 2 runs in the fifth inning on 2 walks and 2 hits to take a lead which they never relinquished.

Mel Bach and R. Wille led Mt. Prospect to victory. Each led their hitters and whenever Heidorn's hit the ball hard Wille would make a nice catch of the ball.

Bruce Clark garnered half of the four hits Heidorn's got off Wally Bach.

Mt. Prospect is the only team in the league that is still undefeated.

Wheeling Breaks In Win Column

All the taverns in Wheeling stayed open an hour later than usual Wednesday evening because Wheeling won a ball game by a 5 to 4 count. After a great game last week Pal-Waukee went back to their fumbling ways and handed Wheeling 3 unearned runs in the 3rd inning.

Oscar Lawrence looks like the best fielding left fielder in the league at this date. Hartman, Wheeling short stop fielded 8 chances without an error.

Sword Beats Cafe

Gaare's Studebakers made the most of six hits to defeat the Cafe, 2 to 1.

Lefty Sword yielded 6 scattered hits to win his first game of the year. The only run off Lefty was a four bagger by Lauterburg.

Wally Heinemann was responsible for both Gaare's runs, driving in the first with double and subsequently scoring on Brodman's single.

Although Joe Marov lost, he pitched great ball and after the first inning, allowed only one man to reach third base.

Dick Tague led Cafe's offensive with 3 singles in as many attempts.

Cafe Also Trounces Heidorn's Team

Arlington Cafe advanced to second place by beating Heidorn's 6 to 3.

The game was decided in the fifth inning when "Red" Koelling hit a line drive homer to left center with one man on. Milligan and Lauterburg also hit for the circuit.

Heidorn's handed Cafe 2 runs in the 2nd frame when G. Milligan dropped 2 easy throws at first. Augie Mayerik was a thorn in the side of Heidorn's all night, getting 2 hits and making 2 nice catches in centerfield.

Arlington Church Softball League Enters Second Week

CHARLES O'HAGAN

The newly organized church league will open their second week of play with the following schedule:

Wednesday, June 21, St. John vs. St. James.
Thursday, June 22, C. Y. O. vs. St. Peter.
Friday, June 23, Methodist vs. Presbyterian.

If you are interested in play with your particular congregation come to the games and make arrangements with the manager of your team. More men from 30 up are needed by most of the teams as it was agreed to divide the personnel of each team into five younger men and five older.

Come to the games and give the participants your moral support if you can't see fit to participate. All games will be played on the grounds of the North Side school.

The ideals behind the league are threefold, namely:

1. A better understanding and tolerance of our fellow citizen and his beliefs.
2. The increase of good fellowship in accord with one of the prime principles of christianity, love of neighbor.

3. A source of healthful recreation for the men and boys of our town.

Incidentally this type of diversion has been accepted by fraternal organizations and church groups throughout the land as an outstanding fundamental in increasing interest and cooperation in more worthwhile undertakings.

It is hoped to continue this group activity throughout the year in bowling, basketball, volleyball and so forth. Join up now and give the town slogan a purpose in life.

Karstens Girls Meet Jewel Tea Friday At Park Field

The Karstens girls will meet the Jewel Tea from Barrington at the new Recreation Park field this Friday evening.

Last Friday the teams met in the rain and the Karstens team was victorious 6-2. However, it didn't mean anything due to the adverse conditions under which the game was played, hence the girls agreed to meet again this week.

There will be a girls game every Friday at the Park field and all baseball fans are invited to attend and watch the girls perform.

At this stage of the season it is hard to make any predictions, however, the team looks like it will be one of the strongest in the history of Arlington Girls baseball.

This Saturday at 8:30 p. m., the Karstens Girls will meet the Elmhurst Girls at Elmhurst under the lights.

A week from Friday, June 26, at 7 p. m., the same teams will meet at the field in Arlington Recreation Park.

Luerssen didn't allow a hit in the first 4 innings, but weakened and was being hit pretty hard in the last 3 frames.

Weatherman Is Toughest to Beat, Redwings Learn

Arlington Nine Dampened By Rain And Losing Spirit

by EDDIE WAHL

Everyone seems to agree that the Maciejewskis were tough opposition a week ago but they were far from being the toughest opponent of each team in this season. That old custodian of the heavenly waterworks, the weatherman, has given the team the most trouble and last weekend he again opened up the faucets resulting in the third postponement in the last four Sundays.

Manager Page has hopes of playing another game this season and for next Sunday afternoon has booked the Glenview Night Owls. This will be the first time this club has ventured away from the protecting skirts of their second cousin umpires who see no evil, hear no evil or think no evil of the Milwaukee railroad and seem to guarantee them a win at any odds.

Then playing away from home will be a strain on the bank roll, too, and no high caliber pitcher imported out of Chicago will be available. Recently a group of Redwing players along with a number of players picked up from the Midwest League, played a night game at Glenview and that club went deep into their pockets to bring out a pitcher from the Spencer Coals, one of the best semi-pro clubs in Chicago. As a sly move he was even introduced under a phoney name.

Playing under electric lights that make the field about as bright as a Madison street tavern on Saturday night, the Glenview nine has been taking unfair advantage over unsuspecting opponents who believe they have an even chance, and run up a series of hollow victories.

How well they will be able to see in sunshine will have to be seen. It may be as hard to play under natural conditions as it is to perform under dim artificial lights.

Reuse Back Sunday will mark the first appearance of Lefty Reuse in the Redwing lineup. The classy first sacker played most of last season at Arlington. A long rangy lad with a flag pole reach which he will need if they Redwings intend keeping the ball around as during the last two games, this lad will give considerable defensive strength to the club and possibly pull the infield together.

Pedersen who has been covering the bag this year, has retired from baseball to devote more time to more individualistic activities. His hitting will be missed as he has been an extra base threat.

Reuse, although not a long ball slugger, is reliable but may not quite reach the batting mark of Pedersen. However, he will undoubtedly make up the difference by his defensive play which has been very shaky around that important first sack.

Layoffs Hurt Just as earlier in the spring the weather is such that practice is impossible and the long layoffs between games soon allows the players to lose whatever condition and batting eye they may have.

One advantage is that the prolonged rest may help the boys lose their jitterbug antics on the field and play a steady game to get a new winning streak under way again.

After two games in which Redwing bats have been silenced to such a degree that Manager Page has become alarmed and threatened to trade off a few boys to Wheeling or the local softball league there should be a spurge of extra base drives at the expense of any pitcher Glenview can afford to use Sunday afternoon.

Loss Last Two After winning three games in a row the Redwings have lost the last two. In between these games have been three Sundays when rain or wet grounds forced cancellation of the scheduled games.

During that time in five games Schaeffer and Pedersen have allowed 34 hits and 20 runs while Arlington has gathered 51 hits and 39 runs. Although outitting their opponents in all but the last game the Redwings have lost any advantage gained on the offensive by very poor defensive work.

Individual batting marks are beginning to adjust themselves and as some of the leaders are beginning to come down those fellows who started late are getting their batting eye and raising the average. So far this year this is how they are hitting.

Wahl	AB	R	H	Pct
Schaeffer	19	6	9	.474
Willert	19	6	7	.369
Firnback	13	1	4	.308
Pedersen	20	4	6	.300
Cherwin	15	3	4	.266
F. Brodman	19	1	5	.263
Bolte	19	3	4	.211
Hertel	10	3	2	.200
J. Brodman	14	4	2	.143

Willert leads the sluggers with extra base wallops, having a home run and two doubles. Schaeffer has a triple and two doubles and Wahl two two baggers. Joe Brodman is specializing in getting bases on balls again have five free trips to first base so far.

ARL The pupils of Miss Olga Junge gave a piano recital at the home of Mrs. Homer Byrd on Sunday afternoon, June 11. The following took part: Virginia Lee Byrd, Shirley and Joan Dodge, Barbara Atkinson, Dorothy Sieburg, Robert and Rose Mary Heller and Betty Grose. Frances Matsukawa, violinist and Lillian Matsukawa, pianist, each played several selections which added much to a lovely program.

Sue Cabaret For $70,000 For Injuries When Two Accept Ride of Patron

Sophie Duchardt and Eleanor White have sued in Superior court for $70,000 damages against the Sky Rocket Cabaret, Andrew and Walter Anderson, proprietors, Skokie rd. near county line and Vera Patterson, owner of the property, for injuries in an automobile accident on Skokie rd., Aug. 4.

They allege they accepted a ride from Russell LaVelle, who had been drinking at the Sky Rocket and drove so recklessly he ran into a culvert a half mile south of Winnetka rd. and wrecked the car, causing them serious injuries. Sophie Duchardt asks $50,000 and Eleanor White $20,000.
